

Curriculum vitae	Goschke, Thomas, Prof. Dr. phil., Dipl.-Psych.
Official Position	Chair of General Psychology Director, Institute for General Psychology, Biopsychology and Methods of Psychology
Institution	Faculty of Psychology, Technische Universität Dresden, Dresden, Germany
E-Mail	thomas.goschke@tu-dresden.de

Research area

Cognitive and neural mechanisms underlying volitional action, cognitive control and dysfunctions of self-control

Academic education and degree(s)

1979-1987	Studies of Psychology and Philosophy, Ruhr-Universität Bochum
1987	Diploma in Psychology (with distinction), Ruhr-Universität Bochum
1992	Dr. phil. (summa cum laude), Universität Osnabrück
1999	Habilitation in Psychology, Universität Osnabrück

Professional career: Stages of scientific work

1987-1993	Doctoral student, Department of Psychology, University Osnabrück
1993-1999	Postdoctoral Researcher, Department of Psychology, University Osnabrück
1995-1996	Visiting Faculty Member, Institute for Cognition and Decision Sciences, University of Oregon at Eugene (stays funded by the DAAD)
1997	Interim Professor of General Psychology (C4), TU Braunschweig
1999-2000	Assistant Professor, University Osnabrück
2000-2002	Senior Scientist, Max-Planck-Institute for Psychological Research, Munich (Cognition & Action Unit, Prof. Wolfgang Prinz)
Since 2002	Professor (W3) of General Psychology, Department of Psychology, TU Dresden
Since 2003	Director of the Institute for General Psychology, Biopsychology and Methods of Psychology
2004-2009	Vice-Dean and Head of the Department of Psychology, TU Dresden
Since 2007	Managing director of the Neuroimaging Center of the TU Dresden
2012-2014	Elected member of the Senate of the TU Dresden
Since 2012	Spokesperson of the Collaborative Research Centre (SFB 940): "Volition and Cognitive Control: Mechanisms, Modulators, Dysfunctions"
2014-2018	Vice-Dean and Head of the Department of Psychology, TU Dresden
2018-2022	Dean of the Faculty of Psychology, TU Dresden